PROPHETIC WORD

While seeking the Lord for a word for the month of March. I heard the word "positioning." There is a lot of shaking going on in our nation and in the spirit realm. Great heightened warfare is right before our eyes. But I heard the Lord saying "The shaking is about positioning for movement. I'm shaking and I am moving. Advance with me! Don't stay where I am not. ARISE and GO! Go to the fields where I am sending you for the harvest. Divine positioning and alignment for this is My doing. This is MY doing. I am creating movements for my purposes."

PROPHETIC WORD

The Story of Peter recorded in the book of Acts

(5:18) was impressed upon me as a scripture reference for this word; when Peter and John were arrested and put in a public jail. Yet, the Bible says during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors leading them out. Even now the Lord is opening doors and leading His people out to be in position to reap the harvest of "soul" that must come into the kingdom in this hour.

FROM THE APOSTLE'S DESK

Greetings, Centers Of The Great Commission,

What we've spoken in previous versions of our newsletter is now unfolding right before our eyes. One of the purposes of the newsletter is to warn, inform and prepare you for what's to come. Also, to guide you when it comes. Perilous times are manifesting right before our eyes. One of the major strategies behind these types of events is to create a sense of hopelessness and helplessness among people. This sense of loss will visit people frequently because of the course of events that will occur over the next seven months. These events are going to bring bewilderment, confusion, and a sense of helplessness amongst the people. There is a time to fall, there's a time to learn, and there's a time to be tested. At this juncture, all that has been taught will now be tested. All of the prosperity movements in this season will be silenced. Even those that have prospered in this season will now begin to exhaust their resources and really trust in God. Scripture clearly states that the just shall live by faith. Prosperity creates the illusion that you're living by faith but you're really living by mammon. The season of testing has begun. For years, us and many before us have preached the gospel of Jesus Christ. Many have rejected it and others have absolutely manipulated it to their benefit but not to the glory of God. This has come before the throne of God and the judgment of God has begun to manifest amongst the churches. In the midst of this, those that have been true to the game, true meaning holiness, fasting, praying and trusting in God, will now begin to see the true manifestation of the grace, mercy and power of God.

FROM THE APOSTLE'S DESK

The season of preaching and not being heard is quickly coming to a halt because of the fear, helplessness, loss of money, loss of property, and death of family and friends. The ears of the people will now be open and the search for God will now become real. This is why in this season it is imperative that the saints, preachers, five-fold ministry and the church be not weary in well doing. Because of the rejection, the rebellion, the seemingly not being heard, even the persecution that many of preachers have experienced has caused them to get weary and give up the fight. Many will get saved in this season, many will get delivered, and many will run to the church that have never considered it. It's important to remember that every ministry has a season of productivity. If you have struggled up to this point with winning souls, it could be a strong possibility that your ministry season has just begun. He's called for you to be a voice in the wilderness like John the Baptist, screaming "repent for the kingdom of God is at hand." Don't allow your past in ministry to forfeit your now. We will be dropping this newsletter into your mailboxes more frequently, not just on a monthly basis, because of the state of the world right now. It's now time to Pray!
